

Interdisciplinary Studies Lonergan University College

*"...the kind of active learning through Dialogue that is all too
rare..."* - Mike Gasher, Journalism Dept., former teaching fellow at Lonergan College

The Creative Self - LUCC 202/2 and /4 - 01

Introduction to Selected Interdisciplinary Problems:
For God, Glory and Gold: Native and European Civilizations in the Americas - LUCC 298A/2-A

Introduction to Selected Interdisciplinary Problems:
Peace Studies - LUCC 298C/2-AA

Introduction to Selected Interdisciplinary Problems:
Conflict and Creativity - LUCC 298E/4-AA

Introduction to Selected Interdisciplinary Problems:
God, Chaos and Zen: Reconciling Science and Religion in the Contemporary World - LUCC 298F/4-AA

Special College Seminar: Capitalism and Enlightenment: Natural Rights and Enlightenment - LUCC 398E/2-01

Special College Seminar: Capitalism and Enlightenment: Commerce and Virtue - LUCC 398F/4-01

Issues in Contemporary Values: Cross-Cultural Experiences in Canadian Literature - LUCC 441/4-51

All courses are 3 credits. There are no prerequisite, and all interested students are welcome.

Course guides are available from

Lonergan College
7302 Sherbrooke St. West

For further information, contact us at:

phone: 848-2280
fax: 848-2282
Email: maurmac@alcor.concordia.ca

or visit our website at <http://artsci-ccwin.concordia.ca/lonergan/lonergan.html>

Real education for the real world
www.concordia.ca

